To Whom it may concern,

I've known Sasha Hadden just over ten years, and I am very happy to write this reference, as I've always admired his honesty and his total work commitment in whatever he has undertaken, whether it be with his swimming, where I first met him, or his great passion for the film industry.

I am also amazed at his ingenuity, on how he has managed to go from writing, to producing, directing and even organising the screenings, sometimes without any apparent financial assistance, but still always managing to complete his projects.

His versatility and commitment seems to know no boundaries, and I have no reservations in recommending him to whatever path his future takes him.

Yours sincerely,
